

THE MATCH FACTORY SEALS DEALS FOR KEY TERRITORIES ON BERLIN COMPETITION ENTRY SUBMARINO BY THOMAS VINTERBERG.

Cologne / Berlin, 17 February 2010. After it has been well received by the audience and the press, Thomas Vinterberg's SUBMARINO has been sold to a number of key territories during the European Film Market in Berlin so far.

The list of deals includes France (MK2), Benelux (Cinemien), Italy (Mikado), Spain (Golem), Ex-Yugoslavia, Japan (Bitters End), Taiwan (Atom Cinema) and Columbia (Babilla).

Michael Weber, Managing Director of The Match Factory: "We are very happy to work with strong international partners on this outstanding film. Some of them released films by Thomas Vinterberg in the past and we're glad they continue their relationship with such a wonderful director".

SUBMARINO is the story of two down-and-out brothers haunted by a tragic childhood. Troubled ex-con Nick fights painful memories and loneliness to try and reconnect with his brother, a struggling single father and heroin addict...

SUBMARINO is based on the novel by Jonas T. Bengtsson. The Danish film was produced by Nimbus Film. Producer is Morten Kaufmann. Executive Producers are Birgitte Hald and Bo Ehrhardt.
